Circle Shows 'What's Happened'

"Just spin the wheel", says Mary Nell Doss (left)" and see what Future Business Leaders of America have been doing lately in Appomattox." Mary Nell, state FBLA reporter, and Diane Smith, ACHS chapter chaplain, prepared this exhibit which won a Merit rating at a recent district competition. Diane was among those attending the district meet, (but her name was omitted- sorry! - from a T-VA printed list). She and other FBLA's have volunteered to help with Tuesday's Bloodmobile visit. Mary Nell is a District essay winner and will compete soon on the state level.

This is a seven-county show with representatives from Lynchburg, Richmond, Chase City, Clarksville and South Boston.

Company and dealer representatives will be on hand plus the Prince Edward Rescue Squad and P.E. Fire Dept., which will be selling fire extinguishers.

The U.S. Coast Guard Boarding Team will be at the show to talk about boating safety.

MORE ABOUT GREEN EGGS

Paul Doss (Pete) also knows a good bit about "green eggs". He read about Mrs. Benny Guthrie's hen which laid a green egg last week (see March 25 T-VIRGINIAN). Pete has been raising chickens and producing eggs for several years, and several chicks in his flock are the Araucanas which consistently lay the pale green "already Easter-dyed" egg.

Thanks to Pete and to others, including the extension service, for information about green eggs. A half-dozen of the very attractive green eggs was surprise gift for a T-VA reporter. Like the saying goes, "almost too pretty to eat".
